

T. § 43 Licensee Licensee shall not be subject to discipline.

T. § 63 Licensee Licensee shall not be subject to discipline.

T. § 3 Licensee Licensee shall not be subject to discipline.

3. Electives

- The number of required courses varies from year to year.
- Subsequent courses may be required depending on your placement.

*The number of required courses vary from year to year.

C. Field Placements

Field placements are a required part of the Bachelor of Education program. The program is designed to provide students with the opportunity to gain practical experience in the field of education. The program is governed by the The Education Act (S.O. 1997, c. 12), which sets out the requirements for the program. The program is also governed by the Bachelor of Education Field Placement Handbook, which provides detailed information about the program. The program is also governed by the Education Act (S.O. 1997, c. 12), which sets out the requirements for the program. The program is also governed by the Bachelor of Education Field Placement Handbook, which provides detailed information about the program. The program is also governed by the Education Act (S.O. 1997, c. 12), which sets out the requirements for the program. The program is also governed by the Bachelor of Education Field Placement Handbook, which provides detailed information about the program.

Practices Governing Field Placements

The program is governed by the The Education Act (S.O. 1997, c. 12), which sets out the requirements for the program. The program is also governed by the Bachelor of Education Field Placement Handbook, which provides detailed information about the program. The program is also governed by the Education Act (S.O. 1997, c. 12), which sets out the requirements for the program. The program is also governed by the Bachelor of Education Field Placement Handbook, which provides detailed information about the program.

Deferred Placement

Students who are unable to complete their field placement during their first attempt may be eligible for a deferred placement. A deferred placement is a placement that is completed during a subsequent semester. Students who are deferred must complete their placement within a specified period of time. Students who are deferred must also pay an additional fee for the placement. Students who are deferred must also complete a report on their placement. Students who are deferred must also complete a reflection paper on their placement. Students who are deferred must also complete a final report on their placement. Students who are deferred must also complete a final reflection paper on their placement. Students who are deferred must also complete a final report on their placement. Students who are deferred must also complete a final reflection paper on their placement.

Students who are deferred must also complete a final report on their placement. Students who are deferred must also complete a final reflection paper on their placement. Students who are deferred must also complete a final report on their placement. Students who are deferred must also complete a final reflection paper on their placement. Please note that there are additional costs associated with a deferral.

Denied Placement

Students who are unable to complete their field placement during their first attempt may be denied placement. A denied placement is a placement that is not completed during the first attempt. Students who are denied placement must complete their placement during a subsequent semester. Students who are denied placement must also pay an additional fee for the placement. Students who are denied placement must also complete a report on their placement. Students who are denied placement must also complete a reflection paper on their placement. Students who are denied placement must also complete a final report on their placement. Students who are denied placement must also complete a final reflection paper on their placement.

1.1.1.1.1

... ..

... .. New Brunswick Education Act

... ..

01 (... ..)

Withdrawal/Dismissal from the Field Placement and Bachelor of Education Program

... .. (... ..)